

Hope Star

WEATHER. Arkansas—Considerable cloudiness, probably local thunder showers Monday night and Tuesday.

VOLUME 40—NUMBER 219

HOPE, ARKANSAS, MONDAY, JUNE 26, 1939

PRICE 5c COPY

HOPE DOCTOR KILLED

ONE YEAR TO GO
Presidential Possibilities
No. 1—Thomas E. Dewey

Tom Dewey... G. O. P.'s ace contender for 1940 nomination.

By BRUCE CATTON

NEA Washington Correspondent
Number One contender for the Republican nomination right now is unquestionably Thomas E. Dewey, handsome gang-buster of the New York district attorneyship.

For a man who left his home town (Owosso, Mich.) only 1 year ago to make his way in the big city, Dewey has come up fast. He got one lucky break—when Governor Lehman, a Democrat, named him special prosecutor to clean up New York's rackets; the rest of his climb was done the hard way.

He is young and looks young; he is strikingly handsome, a good speaker and a magnetic sort of person to meet. He works hard, has a driving force and a brilliant legal mind, and—just incidentally—owns a sound political background, back around the turn of the century his father and his uncle were political leaders in Shiawassee county, Michigan, and knew the game inside and out.

To date Dewey has refused to be smoked out on national political issues, conceding sound tactics for his party's most prominent contender. His gubernatorial campaign last fall made a good impression. He proved then that when the fight is on he is not hesitant about committing himself.

HIS ASSETS: Most important, a magnificent record as a scourger of political corruption; large quantities of "political" or voter-appeal; a well-earned reputation for courage, incorruptibility and energy, and a general air of being a good man to handle a tough job.

HIS LIABILITIES: Many party leaders dislike him, think him arrogant and self-centered. He is having trouble harmonizing the liberal and conservative wings of his party in New York state. As the "front runner," he is the natural target for the other contenders.

HIS CHANCES: Many a man has one to the White House with fewer assets and heavier liabilities.

Increase Penalties Against Espionage
WASHINGTON.—(P)—Alarmed by reports that the nation's new defense program has brought a sharp increase in activities of foreign spies, congress is preparing legislation increasing the penalties on all forms of espionage.

1,000 Arkansas Employees Faced With Legal Action
LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—Eli W. Collins, director of the state labor department, announced that more than 1,000 Arkansas employees, "who have ignored all amicable attempts" of the division to collect contributions due under the laws, faced legal action.

Goes To 39 Schools
SAN FRANCISCO.—(P)—Normagne James, 17, has been to 39 schools in various parts of the United States. Despite her frequent changes, she has received her high school diploma here at the age of 17.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS.—(P)—July cotton opened Monday at 9.51 and closed at 9.52-65.
Spot closed quiet and unchanged, middling 9.45.

Dr. T. L. McDonald Apparently Fell Asleep at Wheel

Automobile Crashes Into Bridge Near Stephenville, Texas

WAS DRIVING ALONE

Funeral Services Will Be Held at 11 o'Clock Tuesday

Dr. T. L. McDonald, about 52, of Hope, died in a Stephenville, Texas, hospital shortly before 6 a. m. Monday as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident six miles west of Granbury, Texas.

The accident occurred about 2:30 a. m. Monday when his automobile struck a concrete bridge and burst into flames. Tourists passing the scene of the accident removed him from the wreckage before he was burned.

He was rushed to a Stephenville hospital where he died a few hours later. Reports from Stephenville said that he apparently fell asleep at the wheel of his car.

Japanese Halt 2 British Steamers

Are Prevented From Unloading Passengers in South China

TOKYO.—(P)—Domei, Japanese news agency, reported in a dispatch from Swatow that Japanese navy officials forcibly prevented two British steamers from unloading passengers and freight at the South China port Monday.

After several hours, Domei said, the two steamers departed.

Dobson Flees From Hope's City Jail

Makes Escape as Custodian Opens Jail to Clean Cells

Authorities in southwest Arkansas Monday were on the lookout for Paul Dobson who escaped from the city jail here Saturday.

Police Chief Sweeney Copeland said Dobson ran past the jail custodian while the latter was cleaning the jail. He soon disappeared and had not been located Monday afternoon.

Dobson, a Hempstead county man, was being held here for Marshall, Texas, authorities.

$140,000,000 Worth Arkansas Bonds to Be Issued Oct. 1st

Governor Bailey Announces Plan to Refund Road Obligations

TEST CASE PLANNED

Validity of Action to Be Tested by Supreme Court

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—Gov. Carl E. Bailey, acting with approval of his board of finance, Sunday ordered $140,000,000 worth of bonds issued October 1 to refund an equal amount of outstanding state highway obligations.

The executive order will be filed with the secretary of state Monday morning and immediately a test case will be brought in Pulaski chancery court to establish validity of the action.

Attorney General Jack Holt will represent the state, filing a demurrer to the suit attacking the order. If the chancery court sustains the demurrer, an appeal will be filed in the supreme court before noon and that tribunal asked to advance the case for a decision before its summer recess, now set for July 10.

Governor Bailey said he would appear before the supreme court personally in a plea for speedy action on the case if Holt requested his assistance.

Bailey, who returned Sunday morning from New York and Washington conferences with financial powers, said "everything has been done in the money markets in order to accomplish the refunding. The whole process now rests with the courts of Arkansas."

Court Test Planned
Speedy court action was necessary, the governor said, because the first date upon which the outstanding highway bonds can be called is October 1.

He said if the court upheld his order, the bonds would be sold in August and the call for surrender of the outstanding obligations issued in September.

"An adverse decision by the courts means it (the refunding) can't be done at all," the governor said.

The total amount of the bond issue would be $140,537,253.20. The rate of interest would be fixed by the open bidding, Bailey said, as would the life of the issue. The bonds could not, however, be scheduled for maturity over more than 40 years.

Proceeds from the sale of these new bonds, authorized by Bailey's 1937 refunding act, would be used to retire the following bonds issued under the state's 1934 refunding contract:

Highway "A" bonds—$12,946,000 of 4.25 per cent; $12,572,000 of 4.5 per cent; $17,255,000 of 4.75 per cent; and $34,624,000 of five per cent. Total—$77,397,000 with final maturity in 1977.

Toll bridge "A" bonds—$1,884,000 of 4.75 per cent; and $3,747,000 of five per cent. Total—$5,631,000 with maturity in 1965.

Road district "A" bonds—$38,822,525 worth of three per cent, with final maturity in 1949.

Highway "B" bonds—$9,044,625.28 worth of 3.5 per cent with final maturity in 1953.

Toll bridge "B" bonds—$869,959.20 worth of 3.5 per cent with final maturity in 1953.

Road district "B" bonds—$2,253,013.64 worth of non-interest-bearing obligations with final maturity in 1949.

DeValls Bluff bridge bonds—$379,426 worth of three per cent with final maturity in 1950.

Funding notes—$324,628.45 worth of three per cent with final maturity in 1954.

Certificates of indebtedness $5,755,074.63 worth of three per cent with final maturity in 1944.

Interest Rates
Bailey's executive order provides that the interest rates borne by the new general obligation bonds "shall be so fixed that for the aggregate amount of outstanding obligations bearing any one rate of interest there shall be at least an equal amount of refunding bonds bearing a lower rate of interest, except that there may be an amount of refunding bonds equal

Supreme Court Refuses Joel Carson New Trial

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—Joel Carson, 28, lost in the state supreme court Monday his last legal hope of escaping electrocution at Tucker prison farm Friday morning.

The court refused to permit Carson to seek a new trial in Pulaski circuit court for the May, 1938, slaying of a state hospital guard, J. B. Keller.

In an opinion by Associate Justice T. M. Mahaffy to which there were no dissents noted, the court held the use tax was a property tax, and that the state legislature did not make clear its intent to levy such a tax when it passed the two percent sales tax law in 1937.

No State Use Tax, Is Court's Ruling
Legislature Failed to Make Intent Clear, Court's Decision

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—Holding the sales tax and the use tax not identical, the state supreme court ruled Monday that Arkansas had no use tax in effect.

In an opinion by Associate Justice T. M. Mahaffy to which there were no dissents noted, the court held the use tax was a property tax, and that the state legislature did not make clear its intent to levy such a tax when it passed the two percent sales tax law in 1937.

New Petition for Workmen's Law Measure Is Identical With One Bailey Vetted Last March

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—Petitions bearing 14,963 signatures were filed with the secretary of state Monday seeking to initiate at the 1940 general election a workmen's compensation law identical with the Smith-Coleman bill which was vetoed last March by Governor Bailey.

Long Court Docket Heard by Lemley
Municipal Court Judge W. K. Lemley Monday heard approximately 20 cases with the following results:

Viola McFadden, possession of untaxed liquor, convicted and fined $50. Notice of appeal was taken, bond being set at $150.

Charles McFadden, drunkenness, convicted and fined $10. Notice of appeal given with bond set at $150.

Tom Gray and Doris Lee forfeited $10 cash bond on charges of drunkenness.

McElanor Cooper and Bob Moore entered pleas of guilty to charges of drunkenness. Each was fined $10.

Luther Davis and Ellis Miller pleaded guilty to assault and battery charges both being fined $5.

D. B. Phillips, Ed Trotter, Mrs. Tom Evans and O. Hindman forfeited $1 cash bond for double parking.

Thad Felton, speeding, forfeited $10 cash bond.

Jess Cornelius and Ernest Barnes, grand larceny, examination waived and held for action of Hempstead circuit court under $300 bond. They are charged with theft of a yearling, property of Thomas H. Seymour of near Fulton.

Homer Tyson, reckless driving, dismissed on motion of deputy prosecutor.

B. D. Head, carnal abuse, examination waived and held for action of Hempstead circuit court under $500 bond.

Whitten-York Furniture company was given judgement for possession of property in a civil suit brought against Cecil G. Ross.

Washburn Returns From 5-Weeks Visit in East
A. H. Washburn, publisher of The Star, returned this week-end from a five-weeks trip East, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Washburn, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and seeing the New York World's Fair. He joined his parents in a side-trip to Williamsburg, Va., early colonial town that has been restored by John D. Rockefeller, Jr. In the party were his brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Clark H. Yeager of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; and Dr. William H. Brown, professor of botany in Johns Hopkins university, and Mrs. Brown. At Williamsburg he saw Ben Haynes of Hope, and Mrs. Haynes, who had driven down from Washington, D. C., where Ben is with the Department of Commerce.

Fort Smith Woman Is Seriously Hurt in Accident Here
Mrs. J. M. Bailey, 43, Sustains Fracture of Spine, X-ray Shows

Mrs. J. M. Bailey, 43, prominent Fort Smith club woman, remained in a critical condition at Josephine hospital Monday as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Hope Sunday afternoon.

A report from the hospital at 2:45 p. m. said that she was still unconscious.

She was brought to the hospital in a grave condition after the automobile in which she and her husband were riding turned over several times a mile northeast of Hope on Highway 67 about 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Bailey escaped with minor bruises. An X-ray examination revealed a fracture of the spinal column. It was also feared that she had sustained other injuries.

Car Is Damaged
Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were en route from Fort Smith to Texarkana to attend the dedication of a new Humane Society building when the car, driven by Mr. Bailey, slipped off the shoulder of the road just south of the Missouri Pacific viaduct and turned over several times, landing with the wheels up.

The car, a new sedan, was badly damaged. The impact hurled Mrs. Bailey approximately 15 feet from the car, reports said.

Mr. Bailey is connected with the real estate and insurance business at Fort Smith. Mrs. Bailey is president of the Fort Smith Humane Society, and prominent club woman there.

Melon Growers of County Organize

Will Trademark All No. 1 Melons to Protect Prices

About 100 watermelon growers met at the city hall Saturday morning and voted to organize a Hope Watermelon Association, composed of growers "living in the Hope trade area and to trademark all No. 1 melons grown by members of the association.

The following were elected as officers of the association:

Paul Bryant, Hope, president; R. P. Bowen, Hope, secretary.

Executive Committee: Roy Butler, Spring Hill; J. J. Samuels, DeAnn; Lonnie Henderson, Patmos; J. E. McWilliams, Shover; Sherman Cox, Washington; John Hartfield, Holly Grove; J. O. England, Guernsey.

The board was instructed to draw up rules and regulations to be presented to the members for approval at the next meeting, and a meeting was called of all growers interested in the association for 10 o'clock, Saturday morning, July 1, at the city hall.

Nashville Woman Drowned in River
Mrs. Lucile Elaine Upton Was Fishing With Her Husband

DE QUEEN, Ark.—Mrs. Lucile Elaine Upton, 28, of route five, Nashville, was drowned late Saturday when she slipped and fell into the Saline river six miles east of Lockesburg while fishing with her husband Merry H. Upton. The body was brought here by a De Queen ambulance Saturday night.

Upton said he had gone to the river with his wife shortly after noon. They were fishing about a mile upstream from the bridge on the Nashville-Lockesburg highway. He left the river bank and went up into a corn field. Hearing his wife scream he rushed back and dived into the river and brought her out.

He said he tried artificial respiration for a long time and then walked a mile to the highway and asked a passing motorist to summon help.

Sheriff Jones Floyd, of Howard county and Dr. J. C. Graves of Lockesburg arrived and made an examination. No inquest was held.

Mrs. Upton was born and reared at Lockesburg. She is survived by

Wreck on Highway
Automobile Turns Over Several Times Mile North of Hope

Mrs. J. M. Bailey, 43, prominent Fort Smith club woman, remained in a critical condition at Josephine hospital Monday as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Hope Sunday afternoon.

A report from the hospital at 2:45 p. m. said that she was still unconscious.

She was brought to the hospital in a grave condition after the automobile in which she and her husband were riding turned over several times a mile northeast of Hope on Highway 67 about 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Bailey escaped with minor bruises. An X-ray examination revealed a fracture of the spinal column. It was also feared that she had sustained other injuries.

Car Is Damaged
Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were en route from Fort Smith to Texarkana to attend the dedication of a new Humane Society building when the car, driven by Mr. Bailey, slipped off the shoulder of the road just south of the Missouri Pacific viaduct and turned over several times, landing with the wheels up.

The car, a new sedan, was badly damaged. The impact hurled Mrs. Bailey approximately 15 feet from the car, reports said.

Mr. Bailey is connected with the real estate and insurance business at Fort Smith. Mrs. Bailey is president of the Fort Smith Humane Society, and prominent club woman there.

Bruce Catton Says:

C. I. O. Seeks Merger With Townsendsites to Build Powerful Pressure Machine

WASHINGTON.—A far-reaching movement to tie the C. I. O. and the Townsend old-age pension group together into one enormous pressure organization that would fight for "progressive" social and labor legislation, as well as for higher old-age benefits, is quietly getting under way here.

The movement is initiated by C. I. O. headquarters, and comes in response to "grass roots" requests from rank and file members of both organizations.

It is an outgrowth of the fact that there has already been considerable co-operation between the two groups in scattered instances, local C. I. O. units co-operated closely with Townsend and "Ham and Eggs" clubs to bring about the election of Governor Olson and Senator Downey.

Right now a good deal of quiet conversation is taking place on the matter on Capitol Hill, where C. I. O. representatives are sounding out senators who are aligned with Townsend. An unofficial C. I. O. observer is taking in the Townsend convention at Indianapolis. More definite, detailed moves will be made after that convention has ended.

"60 for 60" Program
The first public move was made in mid-June when the C. I. O. executive board formally resolved to undertake a national campaign, "in co-operation with old age and progressive groups," for a flat $50-a-month pension for everyone 60 years old or over.

Supplementary allowances for wives would raise this to a $80 maximum. The provision, however, that the amount of private income possessed by a pensioner should be deducted from his bene fits.

Adopting this resolution primarily expressed the C. I. O.'s dissatisfaction with the New Deal's social security program. The principle the C. I. O. is now committed to is that old age benefits should not go merely to selected groups which have contributed by pay roll taxes, to the benefit fund, but should go to all old people as a matter of right.

Further, it explicitly disavows the idea that the system should pay for itself. The executive board endorsed the payroll tax simply as a revenue measure, and suggested estate and gift taxes to raise whatever additional money might be needed. It estimates, by the way, that adoption of its plan would increase the annual old age cost by about $600,000,000 over the social security act's total.

By adopting these principles, the C. I. O. comes measurably close to the Townsend and General Welfare philosophies. The big gap to be bridged is the fact that the C. I. O. repudiates the famous Townsend tax.

Bid for Old Folks' Support
What C. I. O. strategists have in mind is the idea that the "60 for 60" idea comes close enough to the Townsend idea to be acceptable to the organized old people. (A number of letters have already been received from Townsendsites, incidentally, expressing vast enthusiasm for the plan.)

If that proves true, there would then be the task of selling the old folks the proposition that old age security is just one angle of the general security problem. And if that job could be done, the support of the old age groups for C. I. O.-sponsored labor and social legislation could be had.

And if to sum up—all of that could be done, some rather remarkable political consequences might follow. Maybe it can't be done; Dr. Townsend himself is still an unknown quantity in the equation. But the C. I. O. is going to give it the old college try anyway.

Unable to Locate L. S. U. President
Louisiana Governor Postpones Resignation Pending Search

BATON ROUGE, La.—(P)—Police searched in vain throughout Sunday night for Dr. James Smith, president of Louisiana State University, whose sensational disappearance followed alleged "financial irregularities" which may reach a total of several hundred thousand dollars.

Police at mid-morning were without clues to the whereabouts of Smith when Governor Richard Leche, postponing his resignation, ordered to be brought immediately before a special grand jury for investigation.

Political observers considered the situation here Monday to be in an unpredictable state, approaching in importance political developments immediately following the killing of Senator Huey P. Long in the state capitol here nearly four years ago.

The governor issued the following statement:

"On June 13, 1939, Attorney General Ellison announced that he was conducting a thorough investigation into certain serious matters. Since that time he has pursued this investigation with zeal and he has presented me with evidence which I believe reveals

(Continued on Page Four)

Highway Meeting Held at Lewisville
Paving of No. 29 From Hope to Louisiana Line Is Urged

LEWISVILLE, Ark.—Plans to have Highway No. 29 paved from Hope, Ark., to Louisiana state line were started here Friday night when delegations from towns in this section met at the Lewisville Chamber of Commerce.

The Highway No. 29 Improvement Association was formed and directors from the following towns were elected: Lewisville, J. W. Patton, Jr., and Jack Lester; Bradley, Frank Adkins and Dallas McDonald; Canfield, W. E. Copeland and B. T. Love; Old Lewisville, J. E. Barnes and Paul Jackson; Patmos, Bert Keith.

Hope, Charles Thomas and Ed McFadden; Buckner, John Riggins and L. Peet; McKamee, Tom Parks; Stamps, Dr. L. Strange and Dick Davis.

The improvement association will meet here again next Friday night when it will be decided just what steps will be taken.

Out of town men at the meeting included R. P. Bowen, secretary of the Hope Chamber of Commerce; Terrell Cornelius and A. W. Stubbeman of Hope; D. L. Kaufman, president of the Hope Chamber of Commerce; Senator J. H. Pilkinton of Hope; W. E. Copeland of Canfield and Dr. L. T. Strange, R. H. Davis, and N. E. Graham of Stamps. W. D. Stewart, president of the Lewisville Chamber of Commerce presided at Friday's night's meeting. The proposed new pavement would connect with highway No. 67 at Hope.

Senate Rejects Measure to Fix Price of Silver
WASHINGTON.—(P)—The senate rejected Monday a proposal to fix the treasury's price for domestically mined silver at $1.16 an ounce. The treasury now is paying $1.64 cents an ounce for white metal, but the proclamation fixing that rate will expire on June 30.

A Thought
All true zeal for God is a zeal also for love, mercy, and goodness.—R. E. Thompson.

CRANIUM CRACKERS
On the News
Are you up on the news which this paper brings you? See if you can answer the following questions:

1. One of the following men was NOT among the top 10 scorers in the National Open golf tourney. Which? (Sam Snead, Craig Wood, Denny Shute, Harry Cooper, Marvin Ward.)

2. The shooting of a German plane in Czechoslovakia roused stern Nazi measures in Bohemia-Moravia. Complete the words.

3. Who was the American woman freed after Russia had held her for a year and a half?

4. Is the Homer Martin factory of the United Auto Workers now affiliated with the A. F. of L. or the C. I. O.?

5. Middle name of a World War draft dodger who recently returned to the U. S. to serve his sentence is the same as that of a great American city. What's his full name?

Answers on Page Two

Hope Star

Star of Hope, 1899; Press, 1927; Consolidated January 15, 1939

O Justice, Deliver Thy Herald From False Report!

Published every week-day afternoon by Star Publishing Co., Inc.
C. E. Palmer & Alex. H. Washburn, at The Star building, 212-214 South
Walnut street, Hope, Ark.

C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

(AP)—Means Associated Press.
(NEA)—Means Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n.

Subscription Rate (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per week
15c; per month, 65c; one year, $6.50. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and LaFayette counties, $3.50 per year; elsewhere $6.50.

Member of The Associated Press: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

Charges on Tributes, Etc.: Charge will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions, or memorials, concerning the departed. Commercial newspapers hold to this policy in the news columns to protect their readers from a deluge of space-taking memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility or the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

Slow But Sure

Progress under a democracy is slow. Changes are not effected overnight by decree as under totalitarian regimes. But those who believe in democracy as it is practiced here in the United States say that our way of accomplishing things finally gets the job done and done right.

Such seems to be the case with our Social Security program which first started to take form with the advent of the New Deal. The first laws which the administration drove through Congress to set up the program contained plenty of flaws. But they gave the nation a start on a plan which is highly important to every citizen.

But because they weren't perfect, a mighty howl was set up to throw the entire business out of the window. But now, after an advisory group has had time to study the system's operation and after the country has had a few years' experience with it, changes are being made to correct the mistakes.

The revision bill has passed the House and is headed for favorable action by the Senate.

The general intent of the changes to liberalize the benefits of the act and to lessen the immediate tax burdens under it. Experts found it was possible to accomplish both of these apparently contradictory objectives because actuarial experience gained since 1935 showed that reserves, were piling up faster than they were needed.

Contributors to the old age insurance plan will be saved an estimated $825,000,000 in the next three years beginning in 1940 because the tax on employers and employees is being held at 1 per cent instead of advancing to one and a half.

Benefits now will start in 1940 instead of 1942 to pensioners, aged wives, widows, children and aged dependents. This will increase the outgo over a five-year period by an estimated $1,200,000,000.

After these changes have been written into the law, critics doubtless will still be able to pick more flaws in it. And if imperfections do remain, it's a safe bet that they will be fixed—under our sometimes slow but usually sure democratic procedure.

CLASSIFIED

COLUMNS OF OPPORTUNITIES

"The More You Tell the Quicker You Sell"

You Can Talk to Only One Man

Want Ads Talk to Thousands

SELL-RENT-BUY OR SWAP

All Want Ads cash in advance Not taken over the Phone

One time—2c word, minimum 30c Three times—3½c word, minimum 30c

Six times—6c word, minimum 90c One month—18c word, minimum $2.70

Rates are for continuous insertions only.

Male Help Wanted

Services Offered

Good Watkins route open now in Hope for the right party; no car or experience necessary; a chance to make some real money. Write THE
J. E. WATKINS COMPANY, 70-82 W.
Cobb 658-J. Memphis, Tenn.

21-lmo.

PINK-FLESHED FISH

HORIZONTAL

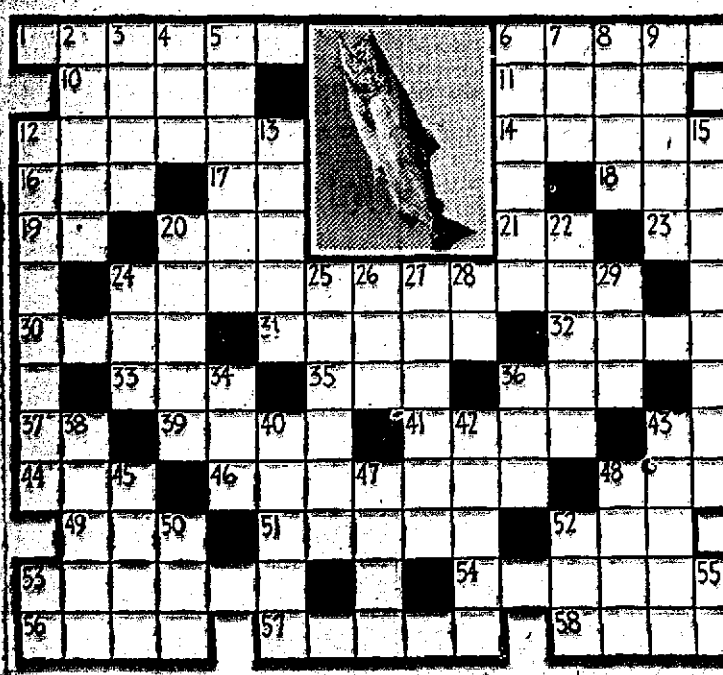

- 1 Pink-fleshed ocean fish.
- 6 It —s or lays eggs in fresh water.
- 10 To lend.
- 11 Fig basket.
- 12 Mischievous spirit.
- 14 Sharp and harsh.
- 16 Onager.
- 17 Hawaiian bird.
- 18 Beverage.
- 19 Mama.
- 20 Insect.
- 21 Lava.
- 23 Senior (abbr.).
- 24 Not separable.
- 30 Middy.
- 31 Made an engagement.
- 32 Hops kiln.
- 33 Walnut.
- 35 Gopher's term.
- 36 Mongrel.
- 37 Street.
- 39 Crippled.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

KINGPETER
ADORE
NEIL
KIBOSH
ACLE
COLE
ORDIAL
NINTER
ACADE
BELGRADE

9 Merchandise.

- 12 It is known for its endurance.
- 13 Eminence's voice.
- 20 To cancel.
- 22 Audibly.
- 24 Electrified particle.
- 25 Circular ornament.
- 26 Supped.
- 27 Short coat.
- 28 Publicity.
- 29 Organ of hearing.
- 34 Label.
- 36 Folding bed.
- 38 Dance.
- 40 Sorcery.
- 42 Assault.
- 43 Performed.
- 45 Opposed to.
- 46 warp.
- 47 Kind of banana.
- 48 Dry.
- 50 Hush!
- 52 To mock.
- 53 Like.
- 55 To accomplish.

The Family Doctor

E. M. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

By DR. MORRIS FISHEIN

Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

Babies Begin to Develop Memory, Walk Between Six and Twelve Months

This is the second of four articles by Dr. Fishbein on how to gauge the intelligence of your baby.

During the second half of the first year, the power of memory becomes more evident. The infant learns to look about for an object which he has dropped, and will attempt to pull toward him a table on which are things out of his reach. He shakes a rattle, hammers with a spoon, crumples and tears paper. Each of these efforts indicates the development of intellect.

At six or seven months he can sit with only slight support. At six months he can make stepping movements if held under the arms. Then at eight or nine months he usually learns to stand while holding to some object. He crawls. By eight months he not only sees objects well, but is able to pick them up.

This new ability fascinates him but distresses the mother. Often he picks up pins, specks of dust, bits of paper—all of which he puts into his mouth. From six to nine months the impulse to put things into his mouth is at its height. Everything he gets hold of is indiscriminately stuffed into his mouth. At this period particularly such habits as thumb-sucking are likely to develop.

By the time children are about one year old, from 65 to 80 per cent of them have developed the preference for the use of one or the other hand, and are fairly well along in learning to walk.

The period at which the various motor abilities develop will give some indication of the child's future. If there is delay in learning to use the hands; to sit up, stand up, and walk, some damage to the nervous system which occurred at the time of birth may be indicated. The delay may not, however, necessarily indicate retardation of intellectual development.

By the second year, children usually learn control of the bladder and the bowels. For some, this acquisition is easy, but with other, infinite patience may be necessary before complete control is accomplished.

The ease of acquisition of this control may indicate to some degree the type of intellect. But, children who are precocious may, at times, be most resistant to the attempts to teach them bowel and bladder control.

Studies of experts, such as Gesell and Fenton, indicate that a 12-month-old baby should have developed such motor abilities as throwing a ball, walking with help, lowering himself from a standing to a sitting position, holding a crayon and making strokes, and holding a cup and drinking from it.

At 18 months the child usually can handle objects with greater sureness, turn the pages of a book, walk or even run, stand on one foot, scribble with a pencil or crayon, take off his shoes and stockings, wipe up spilled things, use a handkerchief, and eat with a spoon without much spilling.

At about 30 months of age children

European Canal

FRANKFURT, Germany.—(AP)—The Rhine-Meuse-Danube canal will be finished in 1945, Werner Daintz, Foreign Ministry official, reported to the canal company. The Rhine-Nuremberg link will be finished in 1943.

can recognize different colors, although they may not be able to name them. The primary colors may be named correctly by the average child of five years.

Judgment of weight may not come until children are from six to eight years of age.

NEXT: Development of speech.

Prospectors Warned About 'Them Thar Hills'

SAN FRANCISCO.—(AP)—With thousands of persons invading the famed Mother Lode gold country, Walter W. Bradley, state mineralogist, has issued a warning to hopeful prospectors. "The odds are against them," he says. "The average earnings from hand placer mining in this state amount to less than 30 cents a day per person. Fortunes were taken out of the California gravels in the days of the gold rush, but the productive fields have been largely worked out."

The original name of San Francisco was Yerba Buena.

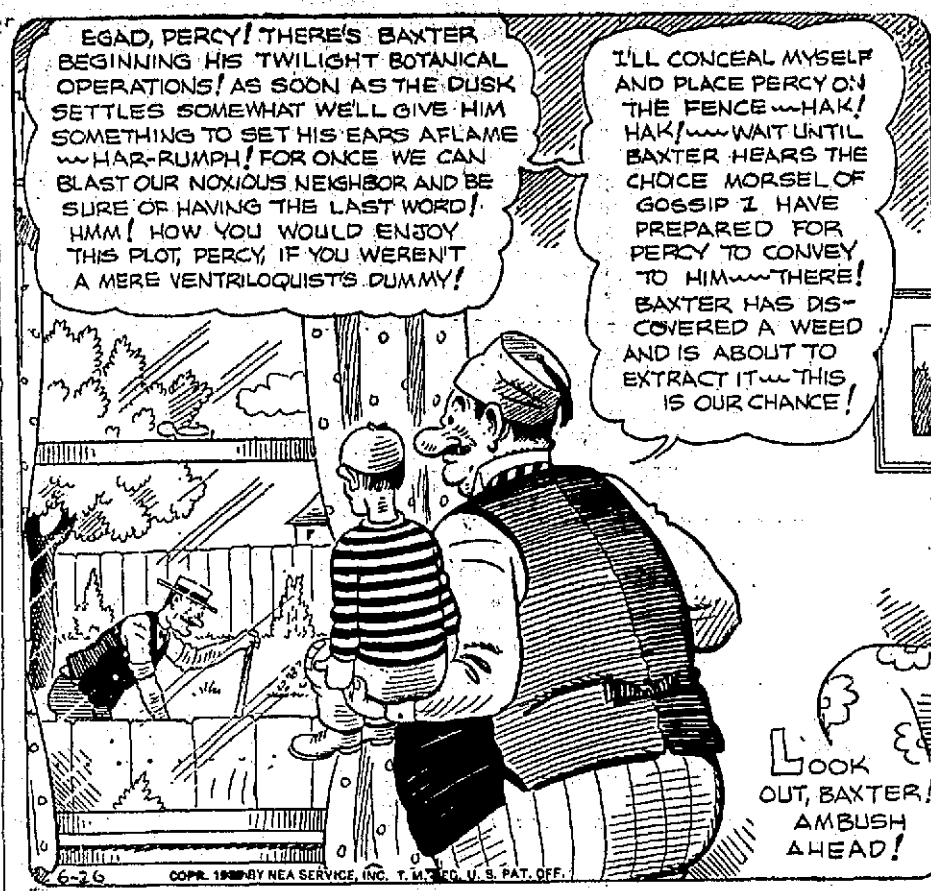

Find Czar Nicholas Bible in Second-Hand Store

LONDON.—(AP)—The family Bible of the late Czar Nicholas II of Imperial Russia has been found in a second-hand bookstore in London.

The Bible, bound in satin-smooth leather with solid gold clasps, has been returned to the British and Foreign Bible Society, which gave it to the Czar for his Coronation in May, 1896.

Vulgate Returned
BUCKINGHAM, Eng.—(AP)—A 14th century Vulgate Bible which disappeared from Buckinghamshire parish church has been returned by post.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE . . . with . . . MAJOR HOOPLE

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. WILLIAMS

Today's Answers to CRANIUM CRACKERS

- Questions on Page One
1. Harry Cooper.
 2. Police sergeant.
 3. Mrs. Adolph Rubens.
 4. With the A. F. of L.
 5. Grover Cleveland Bergdoll.

NOTICE

Half or entire farm, 120 acres. House, barn, etc., on each half. Will trade. Three miles from Hope. Charles V. Fox, R. R. 2 26-31.

For Sale

FOR SALE—1939 Ford truck, 1½ ton. Good condition, with 6 thousand miles. Bill Foster, Blevins, Ark. 19-61p

For Rent

FOR RENT—5 room house and 3 room unfurnished apartment in Magnolia addition. Mrs. J. E. Schooley, Phone 38-F-1-1. 23-6t

Wanted

WANTED—Four-room house or apartment unfurnished, close in, see Mr. Edwards at J. C. Penney store. 23-31p

STAMP NEWS

ANNOUNCEMENT of requirements for covers to be carried on the first airmail flight on the "Great Circle," or northern route of the trans-Atlantic airmail system, has been made by the Post-office Department. The first flight will leave New York June 24 and return from Southampton, England, June 28.

Mails will be received and dispatched at Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada; Botwood, Newfoundland; Dublin, Ireland, and London, England. Covers must bear postage of the country from which they are dispatched.

Westbound covers for Moncton and New York with bank drafts or American Express checks payable to postmaster at Dublin may be sent to Philatelic Section, Dublin Postoffice, Ireland, in time for sailing from New York, June 14. Covers are accepted at 15 pence per half ounce.

No covers and remittances will be accepted at the London office. For the convenience of collectors, covers may be sent, with appropriate money orders, to Pan American Airways, Philatelic Section, 135 East 42nd Street, New York, which will apply stamps and mail covers, at a small charge to cover handling cost. The total charges per half ounce are: London or Dublin to Moncton or New York, 45 cents; London or Dublin to Botwood, 50 cents; Botwood to London or Dublin, 45 cents.

Covers for the eastbound flight should be sent to reach Pan American Airways not later than June 14, and westbound covers not later than June 20. Pan American may apply cachets to covers to be posted at Botwood and London.

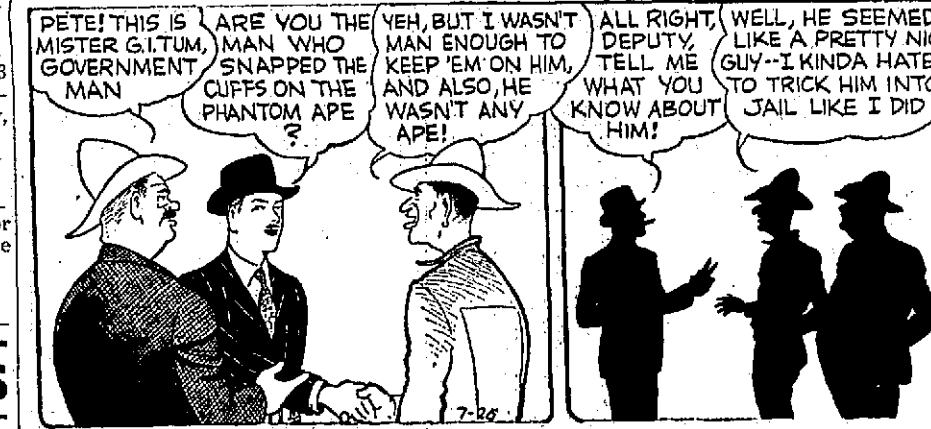

The New York Postoffice will handle cachets from New York to Dublin and London at 30 cents per ounce; New York to Moncton, 6 cents, and New York to Botwood, 15 cents.

In all cases envelopes should be marked in the upper left corner to show the points between which service is desired. There will be no dispatch between London and Dublin.

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

ALLEY OOP

WASH TUBBS

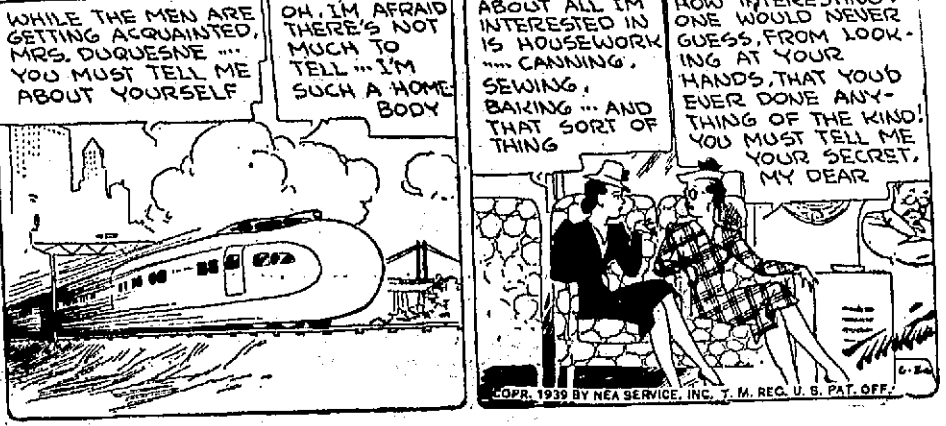

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

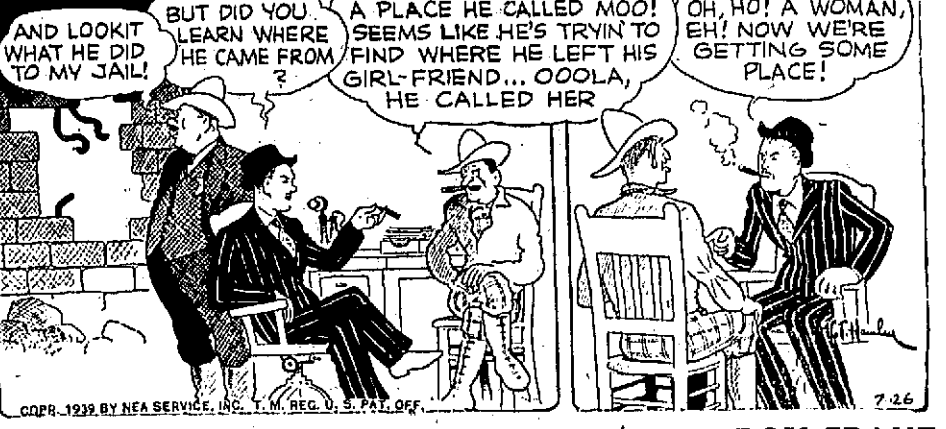

RED RYDER

Woman to Woman

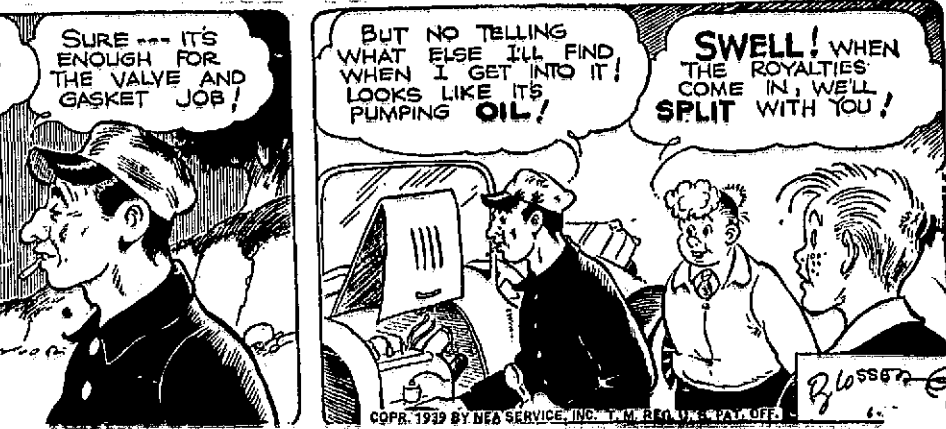

Cherchez La Femme!

McKee, Is Sold

A Gold Mine Under the Hood

A Different Method

By FRED HARMAN

SOCIETY

Mrs. Sid Henry Telephone 321

Just a kind word or a greeting; Just a warm clasp or a smile They are the flowers that will lighten The burdens for many a mile. After the journey is over What is the use of them? How Can they carry them, who must be carried? Oh, give them the flowers now! Blooms from the happy heart's Garden, plucked in the spirit of love; Blooms that are earthly reflections Of flowers that will blossom above Words cannot tell what a measure Of blessing such gifts will allow To dwell in the lives of many; So give them the flowers now.

en route to New York for a visit to the World's Fair. They will also visit in Philadelphia, Pa.

As a pre-nuptial compliment to Miss Kathryn Holt, whose marriage to Mr. Ward C. Stevens took place Sunday evening, Miss Helen Perdue of Lounnan entertained at a beautifully appointed breakfast Sunday morning at the Hotel Barlow. The guests were members of the bridal party.

Miss Lenora Routon will leave Wednesday for Shreveport, La., where she will do theater reviews, church news and feature stories for the Shreveport Times.

The Philanthropic Class of the First Baptist Sunday School will entertain with a picnic at 6:30 Tuesday evening. All members are requested to meet at the church at 6:30 Tuesday evening.

Friends will regret to hear of the passing of Mrs. Mabel Bayless Graham member of one of Hope's pioneer families. Mrs. Graham passed on Sunday afternoon in a Prescott Hospital. For the past several years, she and her family have lived in Gardon, where the funeral services and burial will be held from the First Christian church on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. E. P. Young and boys, E. P. Jr. and Kinard have returned from a visit with relatives in Junction City.

Russel Farley of Shreveport was the Sunday guest of friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Routon Sr. have returned from a delightful motor trip to points in Mississippi, Alabama and Florida where they visited with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Perdue and daughter, and son Richard of Lounnan were week end guests of Mrs. Charles Bryant and other relatives.

The picturesque Presbyterian church nestled in the old historic town of Washington, whose stately dignity and grandeur of bygone generations brought into shadowy outline the ghost of an age of chivalry and romance, was the scene and Sunday evening at six o'clock of a most beautiful and impressive wedding when Miss Kathryn Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Holt, whose ancestors were among Washington's first settlers, became the bride of Mr. Ward C. Stevens of Grand Rapids, Mich. with Dr. J. C. Williams, pastor, reading the impressive ring service, in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends. The church was beautifully decorated, with graceful southern smiles, forming the background for seven branched chandeliers, bearing tall white tapers, the place of ceremony was flanked on either side with an outline of lace fern fronds. Shasta daisies tied with white satin ribbons marked the pews. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Helen Robert Perdue, pianist of Lounnan played a program of nuptial music including, "Chère de Lune," "Ah, Sweet mystery of Life," Serenade and accompanied her brother, Richard Perdue, who sang, "Love You Truly." Miss Perdue wore a floor length pink chiffon. The candles were lighted by the ushers, Miss Reba May and Miss Joella Gold who were gowned in floor pink and aqua chivalrous corsages. Mrs. Crit Stuart of Hope, served as matron of honor and wore a model of periwinkle blue chiffon, with shoulder corsage of Tallman roses. Senator James Pilkinton of this city acted as best man. The stately bride, entered on the arm of her father, and was lovely in her wedding gown of peach embroidered organza over tulle, heart neckline and short puffed sleeves and floor length skirt, she wore a cluster of blue and white daisies in her hair, and carried a bouquet of the natural and pink and blue daisies tied with wide aqua blue satin ribbon. She is the only child of her parents, and received her education, majoring in English in the University of Arkansas and schools in Texas, and for the past few years has taught in her home town and Texarkana, where she taught English in the high school last year. Immediately after the ceremony, an informal reception was held on the lawn at the home of the bride. After which Mr. and Mrs. Stevens departed on a short wedding trip, returning to Washington Wednesday, for departure to Grand Rapids, Mich., where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fairchild of Rosston, were Saturday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Erwin

NO FOOLING

WHEN YOU DIAL 40° IT STAYS 40°

Amazing TRUE-TEMP

COLD CONTROL

Westinghouse Refrigerators at

HOPE HARDWARE CO.

By CAROL DAY

Everything about this apron-frock is designed for comfort during busy days at home.

The waistline is free and easy, because you can make it as loose or as snug at you please, when you tie the same yash bows in the back. The armholes are plenty wide. The skirt has sufficient width at the hem. The V-neckline is sure to be cool.

It makes your life easier, too, by the fact that it buttons down the front and you can spread it flat on the board to iron it. It's such a gay, crisp style to look at, too, with its flared-buckle collar, high-shouldered sleeves, and bright braid edging.

Percale, calico, gingham and lawn are practical materials for this design.

Pattern 8481 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20 and 42. Size 14 requires 4 1/2 yards of 35-inch material without nap; 2 1/2 yards of bias.

The new SPRING and SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 32 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion, is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Spring and Summer Pattern Book—25 cents.

For a pattern of this attractive model send 15c in coin, your Name, Address, Style Number and Size to Hope Star Today's Pattern Bureau, 211 W. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill.

Travelers and Vols Divide Two Games

Pitching Jitters Strike Both Teams During Two Contests

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(AP)—Pitching jitters struck Little Rock and Nashville alternately Sunday as they divided a twin bill, the Vols winning the first, 8 to 4, and dropping the nightcap, 5 to 0.

First game: Little Rock..... 001 000 030—4 11 1 Nashville..... 100 007 00x—8 11 0

Brazle, Meadows, Dasso and DePhillips; Collier, Adams and Bloemire.

Second game: Little Rock..... 010 350 0—9 15 1 Nashville..... 050 000 0—5 10 1

Cayles, Krauss, Brazle and Ferrell; Jeffcoat, Adams, Johnson and Grace, Bloemire.

Atlanta Takes Pair ATLANTA—(AP)—The hitting of two Atlanta players was largely responsible Sunday for the Atlanta Crackers taking both ends of a doubleheader from the Birmingham Barons, 4 to 0 and 5 to 1.

In the opener, John Barker knocked in three of his team's four runs with two doubles. In the second game, Lester Burge's home run with two men on base in the opening inning sparked his mates.

First game: Birmingham..... 000 000 000—0 4 0 Atlanta..... 000 001 03x—4 5 2

George, Wetherell and Crouch; Robinson and Richards.

Second game: Birmingham..... 000 001 0—1 7 3 Atlanta..... 320 000 x—5 6 0

Blake and Crouch; Durham and Smith.

Travelers Acquire Dallas Outfielder

NASHVILLE—Walter Cazen, outfielder with the Dallas club of the Texas League, has been acquired by the Little Rock Travelers on option, Manager George Toporek said here Sunday. Eldon (Bid) Brees, obtained from Louisville on option, will be returned, when Cazen reports. Manager Toporek said that Brees has a sore arm.

The Travelers' manager also announced the acquisition on waivers of Hal King, infielder, from Knoxville. Toporek said that King will serve as protection for the infield and that he is a good hitter. Earl Bolyard probably will be placed on the suspended list because of a sinus ailment.

NEWS CHURCHES

UNITY BAPTIST REVIVAL

We are happy to report a growing interest in the revival now in progress at Unity Baptist church, 511 Elm street.

Two endings also have been written, but there is no problem of censorship there. It must be decided, perhaps by preview audiences, whether resignation or frustration is a better closing note. One ending is like that of the book except that the fadeout shows Scarlett at Tara. She is saying, "He'll come back. . . He must come back. . . I'll think of some way to get him back."

The other conclusion lets you know that Scarlett has given up any notion of seeing Rhett Butler again; but she finds real happiness in her return to Tara and realizes that the plantation is the only thing she honestly loves.

This is not one of those omniscient obituary notes—but I do know that some day Clark and Carole Gable hope to raise a family.

Lya Lya and Humphrey Bogart are going around the Warner lot looking like a couple of spooks and spilling business in the restaurant. They're wearing a ghastly blue-white make-up for "The Return of Doctor X" in which

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

THE STANDINGS

Hope Softball League

Class A League

Club. W. L. Pct. Bruner-Ivory..... 7 0 1.000 Leo Robins..... 4 4 .500

Class B League

Club. W. L. Pct. Soll Conservation..... 8 2 .800 Bruner-Jury..... 7 3 .700

Unique Cafe..... 3 2 .600 Geo. W. Robison..... 4 6 .400

Gunter Bros..... 1 8 .111

Southern Association

Clubs. W. L. Pct. Memphis..... 39 27 .591 Chattanooga..... 39 28 .581

Knoxville..... 35 31 .530 Atlanta..... 31 32 .492

Birmingham..... 31 32 .492 New Orleans..... 29 38 .433

Nashville..... 27 36 .432 Little Rock..... 26 39 .400

Sunday's Results

Nashville 8-5, Little Rock 4-3. Atlanta 4-5, Birmingham 0-1.

Memphis 3-7, Knoxville 1-10. Chattanooga 3-10, New Orleans 0-2.

Birmingham Monday

Birmingham at Atlanta. Only game scheduled.

National League

Clubs. W. L. Pct. Cincinnati..... 37 21 .638 St. Louis..... 32 25 .561

New York..... 33 27 .550 Chicago..... 32 29 .525

Brooklyn..... 27 29 .482 Pittsburgh..... 30 30 .500

Boston..... 24 34 .414 Philadelphia..... 19 36 .345

Sunday's Results

New York 3, Cincinnati 2. Brooklyn 6, Pittsburgh 5.

Boston 7-2, St. Louis 5-0. Chicago 4, Philadelphia 3-1.

Games Monday

Off day.

American League

Clubs. W. L. Pct. New York..... 46 12 .793 Boston..... 31 23 .574

Cleveland..... 32 28 .533 Detroit..... 31 29 .517

Chicago..... 29 28 .509 Philadelphia..... 24 35 .407

Washington..... 24 38 .387 St. Louis..... 17 42 .288

Sunday's Results

St. Louis 7-2, New York 3-11. Detroit 6, Washington 5.

Cleveland 8-2, Philadelphia 4-10. Chicago at Boston, rain.

Games Monday

Boston at Washington. New York at Philadelphia.

Detroit at Cleveland. Only games scheduled.

Paul Harrison in Hollywood

"GWTW" Scenes Filmed Two Ways; One Opposes Censors, Other Appeases

HOLLYWOOD—Short takes: Several of the important scenes in "Gone With the Wind" have been filmed in two ways—one to oppose censorship and one to appease it.

Two endings also have been written, but there is no problem of censorship there. It must be decided, perhaps by preview audiences, whether resignation or frustration is a better closing note. One ending is like that of the book except that the fadeout shows Scarlett at Tara. She is saying, "He'll come back. . . He must come back. . . I'll think of some way to get him back."

The other conclusion lets you know that Scarlett has given up any notion of seeing Rhett Butler again; but she finds real happiness in her return to Tara and realizes that the plantation is the only thing she honestly loves.

This is not one of those omniscient obituary notes—but I do know that some day Clark and Carole Gable hope to raise a family.

Lya Lya and Humphrey Bogart are going around the Warner lot looking like a couple of spooks and spilling business in the restaurant. They're wearing a ghastly blue-white make-up for "The Return of Doctor X" in which

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman, stellar import from Sweden, the thing that most amazes and delights her is corn-on-the-cob. . . Joan Fontaine,

they're supposed to be a couple of dead people who are revived and kept alive by synthetic blood.

A tragedy unreported in Hollywood is the death of Dito, the movies' star chimpanzee. Working the last Tarzan picture, he caught a cold from human members of the cast and later succumbed to pneumonia. . . Dito was the understudy of Shorty until Shorty grew too strong and temperamental for studio work. John Haegeler, who owned both, expects to find a mate for Shorty and give the pair to the San Diego zoo.

Not all the slapstick comedy is on the screen these days. When an upstart but second-rate young actress demanded a private chair with her name on it, one was meekly provided. But first, match-sticks were substituted for all the bolts and screws. It collapsed in a dozen pieces when she tried to sit down, but the wreckage was nothing compared with the damage to her dignity.

Of all the impressive marvels of Movietown, admits Ingrid Bergman

Goebbels Lashes at British Minister

Declares England Unable to Compete With German Nation

ESSEN, Germany.—(P)—Britain "cannot compete with our might," Propaganda Minister Goebbels said Sunday in quick answer to Prime Minister Chamberlain's appraisal of growing British strength.

Speaking at the closing session of party day, Goebbels took issue with the British leader's statement in Cardiff, Wales, reiterated demands for the return of colonies "stolen" from Germany; and enunciated a policy of "he who does not gamble cannot win."

Chamberlain declared in Cardiff that "our navy is today the most powerful in the world; our army is daily increasing in numbers and in efficiency of equipment; our air force... in the quality of its personnel, the speed and power of its machines... is unexcelled by the air force of any other country."

England 'An Idiot'

"We wish statesmen would understand our policies," Goebbels said. "England stands as an idiot. They (the British) cannot compete with our might."

"We have nothing to fear from outside enemies—especially our friend on the other side of the channel," Goebbels said. "Capitulation is not a part of our vocabulary."

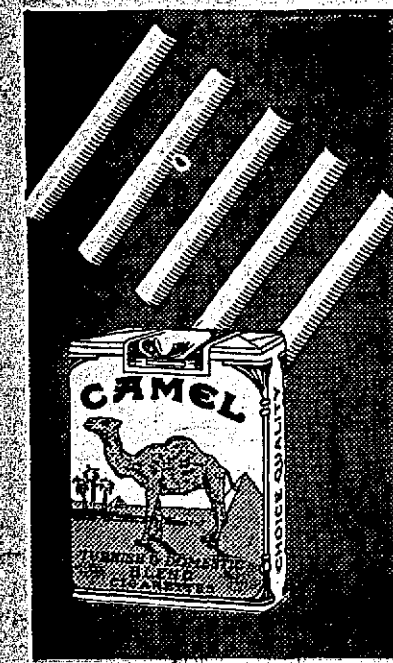

In demanding again return of colonies "stolen" from Germany after the World war, he added: "We would have no reason to say 'thank you.' We only want our own back."

"England says we can do every-

By burning 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them—CAMELS give smokers the equivalent of

5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK

YOU can enjoy cooler, milder, better-tasting smoking at less cost by smoking Camels. Read 3 facts revealed in laboratory tests of 16 of the largest-selling brands:

1 MORE TOBACCO BY WEIGHT than the average for the 15 other of the largest-selling brands.

2 CAMELS BURNED SLOWER THAN ANY OTHER BRAND TESTED—25% SLOWER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME OF THE 15 OTHER OF THE LARGEST-SELLING BRANDS! By burning 25% slower, on the average, Camels give smokers the equivalent of 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

3 In the same tests, CAMELS HELD THEIR ASH FAR LONGER than the average for the other brands.

Everyone can afford cooler, milder, delightful smoking. Camel's extra smoking means real economy with an added bonus of Camel's finer, more expensive tobaccos... America's first choice for smoking pleasure. America's shrewdest cigarette buy!

CAMEL
THE CIGARETTE OF COSTLIER TOBACCOS

The Universal Business Man--Rotary Style

The business man of the world: Here he is in six versions from all parts of the world, met at Rotary International's conclave in Cleveland, O. Cloth-of-gold Indian turbans, bright Scotch kilts, rich brocaded Oriental robes, sober American black-and-white mingled as Rotarians from 50 countries danced, talked, and cemented personal friendships. Led by an American utilities man, George C. Hager of Chicago, the delegates represented all lines of business. The typical world business men shown above are a Newcastle-on-Tyne linen-goods distributor from England, T. D. Young; a Peruvian engineer, Fernando Carbajal of Lima; an Indian moving picture exhibitor of Calcutta, G. A. Dossani (Khan Bahadur); a Filipino publisher of Manila, Carlos P. Romulo; and a near-East automobile distributor, Francis A. Kateneh of Beirut, Lebanon (Syria).

thing by treaty. We want no promises from London, but deeds. He who does not gamble cannot win. If it comes to a crisis, our answer is that if our government takes a risk we will follow and are ready also to take a risk.

"From 1915 to 1918 we followed a riskless policy. Today the leaders have altered the map of Europe. Our adversaries assert we don't know where we are. We know clearly what we want."

Cites British Meekness

Goebbels concentrated his sarcasm on Great Britain.

Goebbels concentrated his sarcasm on Great Britain.

"If they attempt to threaten, that does not matter to us. There is no force behind it. Look at Japan."

"The Japanese strip them naked and they can do nothing."

"Chamberlain said at Cardiff 'We can deal sensibly with sensible men,' he went on. 'That is also our principle and we wish statesmen would understand our policies.'"

"In the old days," Goebbels said, "men of straw stood at the head (of Germany). We lead today and the people follow. Today we are a political people."

"What have the English lost in Danzig? They have lost more in Palestine, while in India they bring civilization with incendiary bombs. They have enough to do with Far East politics outside of Danzig."

"The English now attempt propaganda. We made the Reich by propaganda. We are not nervous, but they have made themselves hysterical by propaganda. Our leader has led us from victory to victory."

Unable to Locate

(Continued from Page One)

even more serious irregularities than were at first imagined.

"For some time our auditors have been making a thorough investigation of the books and records of Louisiana State University in connection with this investigation. As a climax, Dr. James Monroe Smith has tendered me his resignation as president of the Louisiana State University, effective immediately."

"Our auditors and investigators are in charge of the situation, and are making a thorough check, which, on preliminary examinations, reveals financial irregularities which may reach a total of several hundred thousand dollars."

"Since handing me his resignation, Dr. Smith has disappeared, and efforts of Attorney General Ellison and District Attorney Dewey Sanchez to reach him for questioning have been unsuccessful. The state police have been instructed by the district attorney and the attorney general to locate Dr. Smith and to have him available for a special grand jury investigation which will be called immediately by the district attorney."

"I cannot too highly recommend Attorney General Ellison for his zeal in this matter."

"I have called a meeting of the Board of Administrators for 4 p. m. Monday at which time the matter

They Who Get Slapped

These faces are far too pretty to be damaged, but Rosalind Russell, left, and Paulette Goddard slap each other around something fierce in "The Women." Fisticuffs were shot last so the girls could play the rest of the scenes without shiners.

RAISING A FAMILY

By Olive Roberts Barton

Child Like a Duck in Water, If He's Not Ducked at First--Can Learn to Swim Fearlessly

In 1901 there was exactly nothing in the way of a municipal swimming pool. Today there are about ten thousand. And many more are to be built this year.

From this we might surmise that swimming is a major sport of the people, and would be right. It is also a big item in the life of children.

will be fully gone into, and at which time I will suggest the appointment of President E. S. Richardson of Louisiana Tech as acting president."

$140,000,000 Worth

(Continued from Page One)

to the amount of outstanding obligations, which bear interest at the rate of 3.5 per centum per annum; which may bear interest at a rate not exceeding such rate, and an amount of refunding bonds equal to the amount of outstanding obligations, which bear interest at the rate of three per centum per annum, or no rate of interest, which may bear interest at a rate not exceeding three per centum per annum."

Instructors say that five or six years of age is the best time for a child to learn how to take care of himself in the water. But what about little children's fear of water? Well, instructors in the New York public schools tell us that the majority of small children are not afraid of water. They claim that not only is this true, but that the child who is afraid will take much longer to learn to swim.

As fear is the only handicap to learning, it is our duty to see that these young children are not frightened or forced into an instinctive distrust of water.

Never take a child into water over his depth or duck him with the idea that it will overcome his terror. It will only increase it.

Using psychology is the way it is done today in first class pools. In a very shallow place, the teacher tosses small objects into the water. "Who thinks he can get that little bell first?" he asks.

Instantly, a dozen small folk are bumping heads to reach the glimmering brass. All get their faces wet, some have their heads completely under water. Johnny gets the bell and they all wait for the next turn, forgetting the dousing they have had. In

HIGHLIGHTS FROM LATEST BOOKS

A GIRL LOOKS DOWN ON LIFE

For 12 hours Anne Minton stood on the 15th-story window ledge of a Los Angeles hotel. How her long vigil, as she reviewed her own life, affected the personal affairs of many of those watching her is told in Myron Brinig's dramatic novel, "Anne Minton's Life" (Farrar and Rinehart; $2.50), from which the following quotations are taken:

Anne was looking down at the street again. The crowd had grown to thousands who stood and waited for something to happen.

And in addition to these thousands there were hundreds of thousands of other people who were not here, but who were reading about Anne in newspapers, hot off the press and hearing about her over the radio.

All of Los Angeles had suddenly become conscious of this tragic, solitary figure who stood like an animal at bay against the wall of the hotel.

Hundreds of men and women in Southern California at this precise moment were fighting it out with death in seclusion. But Anne Minton had chosen to fight it out before the world.

"What'll I do? Shall I jump now or shall I wait? I'm trying to make up my mind, and it's hard. What have I got to live for? An insane asylum?"

And then she thought, What in heaven's name am I doing out here anyway? I'm getting awfully tired. I don't know if I can stand it much longer. My knees are beginning to feel weak and my shoulders feel cramped and full of pain. My hands feel heavy as if there were weights in the palms of my hands.

And I'm not sure I want to die yet. After all, it's still light. When it's dark I'll be able to know better. Why am I here anyway?

Arkansas Court Asked Reverse Nyberg Ruling

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—Mike and Joe Caldarara, Little Rock beer distributors, asked the supreme court Saturday to reconsider and reverse its four to three decision of June 12 upholding constitutionality of the 1938 Nyberg act. Their petition for a rehearing will be taken under submission Monday with final action expected July 3.

The Nyberg act levied a $3.50 per barrel consumers sales tax on beer in addition to the current $1.50 excise levy.

this way they learn that water is a jolly thing.

Can Learn in a Week

Children of this age, without fear, often learn to swim in a week or less. Those who have something to overcome, will take much, much longer. So do not become impatient if Josie learns at once and Joe simply cannot let himself go.

We must remember, nevertheless, that water is a foreign element to man. Young children should not be permitted to swim in dangerous places, or without an older person near.

Farming Is Fun for Senators

Taking light-hearted stand on agriculture with straw hats and cornucop pipes, four senators go into unofficial huddle on farming at annual outing of Alfalfa Club in Frederick, Md. The senators, left to right: Pat Harrison, Mississippi; D. Worth Clark, Idaho; Alva B. Adams, Colorado, and Allen J. Ellender, Louisiana.

MIND Your MANNERS

T. M. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

1. Should you cover your mouth when yawning?
 2. If you want to read a letter in front of another person, should you say "Do you mind if I read this?"
 3. If someone bumps into you and turns to say "I'm sorry" should you make some reply?
 4. Should a girl say "Why don't I meet you outside the theater?" when a man asks her to take her out?
 5. When a man and woman are standing together waiting for a cab, should she hail one when it passes?
- What would you do if—
- You are a young man and several times you have asked a girl for a date, but she always said she was busy and never asked you to call her again. Would you—
- (a) Decide that she doesn't want to go out with you?
 - (b) Keep calling for dates?
 - (c) Accuse her of not wanting to go out with you?

Answers:

1. Yes.
 2. Yes.
 3. Yes.
 4. No. She should let him come to her house for her.
 5. No. She should let the man take care of that.
- Best "What Would You Do" solution—(a). If she wanted you to call, she would let you know some way.

With the County Agent

Oliver L. Adams

The summer poultry school sponsored by the Extension Service at the College of Agriculture University of Arkansas, Fayetteville will be held during the week of July 17-21. The subject covered in the course will be of interest to all hatcherymen and flock selecting agents and of special interest to all flock owners who are co-operating in the National Poultry Improvement Plan.

There are no tuition or laboratory fees. All poultry flock owners and all others interested in poultry production are invited. For further information and copies of the program for the school, the County Extension Office in the city hall may be contacted.

Market Information

We should always be impressed with the importance of obtaining reliable market information. The old saying, "A man's judgment is no better than his information," is certainly true in

First Flight

Not a first-nighter but a first flighter is Clara Adams, of New York. She has been on numerous first flights by Zeppelins and airplanes. When the Pan American Atlantic Clipper makes its first commercial trans-Atlantic crossing, June 28, she will be aboard. Landing in Marseilles, she will continue around the world by plane. She hopes to break the record for regular airline passengers by girdling the globe in 16 days.

marketing perishable products. Watermelon growers may obtain daily market information on watermelons by writing the Market News Service, Moultrie, Georgia. Tomato growers may secure a Market News Bulletin by writing the Market News Service, P. O. Box 441, Jacksonville, Texas.

These Market News Bulletins show the movement by car and truck, shipping point prices and different wholesale markets.

Nashville Woman

(Continued from Page One)

the husband, her mother, Mrs. J. F. Harrison; four brothers, Sam, Joda, Doc, and Clair, all of Locksburg; three sisters, Mrs. Nell Hancy, Wichita Falls, Texas, Mrs. Florence Bon-

Mocking Bird Mocker Finds He's Being Mocked

WINTER GARDEN, Fla.—(P)—Chas. S. Given is proud of his bird imitations—the taunting notes as well as the lilted ones—but hereafter he will confine conversations with his fine feathered friend to the social amenities.

Sitting beside his trailer in a park here, Given tried out his best bird language insults on a mocking bird in a nearby tree.

The mocker replied in kind and concluded his rebuttal by flying down and picking up a pair of glasses Given's wife had laid on a table, carefully draping them on a limb. As the mocker chirruped triumphantly, Given had to climb to the top of the trailer to retrieve the glasses.

South Seas Justice

APIA, British Samoa.—(P)—Convicted of setting fire to a house a native was given three months to rebuild the place and make up with the owner. Failing to make good, he must appear for prison sentence.

man, Fulton, Ark., and Mrs. Pearl Tollett, Locksburg.

Funeral services will be held Monday at Locksburg.

The Morning After Taking Carler's Little Liver Pills

Bolts and Round Blocks

We are now in the market for White Oak, Overcup, Post Oak, Red Oak, and Ash Heading Bolts.

Also Round BLACK GUM Blocks.

For prices and specifications Apply to:

Hope Heading Company
Hope, Arkansas
Phone 245

Farm Water Systems

Easy FHA Terms

Harry W. Shiver
PLUMBING PHONE 259

SHOP--COMPARE

Penney's Vacation Savings

Washable Rayon Crepe SORORITY 39-inches wide 49c Yard

Special Purchase 36in. Novelty SHEERS A Bragain for You. 19c yard

LADIES Summer Sheer DRESSES 12 to 42 $1.98

Men's Wash PANTS Seersuckers Shantungs 28 to 42 98c pair

Close-Out 1 Table of LADIES SHOES $1.00 pr.

81x99 Nation Wide SHEETS 67c

LADIES SPORT BLOUSES 49c

LADIES BATHING SUITS $1.98

LADIES SLACK SUITS $1.98

New Shipment Ladies PURSES 98c

Close-Out--500 yards RUFFLING yd. 5c

Children's Play SUITS 49c

Ladies Summer Sheer DRESSES 87c

Ladies Novelty Rayon PANTIES 15c

Ladies Handmade GOWNS 25c

PENNEY'S ACROSS STREET FROM POSTOFFICE WHERE HOPE SHOPS AND SAVES

MEN'S POLO SHIRTS All Cotton 25c each

MEN'S SPORT SHIRTS They Are New 79c each

BOY'S WASH SHORTS 2 to 10 49c 98c

Men's Wash SLACKS Ideal For Hot Weather $1.98

Men's Dress SHIRTS 98c

17 x 17 Large White Handkerchiefs 5c each